

Westerly Golden Wedding Surprise

Friends in Calvary Baptist Church Visit Mr. and Mrs. John B. Brown With Handsome Gift—Arguments in Case of Bogle Estate vs. Light & Power Company—Odd Fellows' Ritual at Funeral of William H. Taylor—Dog Bites Tip Off Tip of Child's Nose.

The golden anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Brown was reached October 5th, but was not observed, as members of the family were at the Panama exposition. But associate members of Mr. and Mrs. Brown in the Calvary Baptist church and congregation, did not propose to permit the anniversary to pass unobserved and they gave them a surprise party as a pleasant reminder of the golden wedding day, although not on the date of the event.

Over one hundred assembled at the church and proceeded to the Brown residence in Grove avenue, Friday night, finding Mr. and Mrs. Brown out calling upon their arrival, but the visitors were admitted by the maid, who had been let into the secret. The visitors immediately took possession of the house and turned on all the lights, attracting the attention of Mr. and Mrs. Brown, who were at the home of a neighbor, causing them to cut their visit short. It was a real surprise and very agreeable to Mr. and Mrs. Brown being entertained in their own home. In behalf of the church and congregation Rev. F. C. Jones, pastor, presented a magnificent silver coffee urn, suitably inscribed, to Mr. and Mrs. Brown. Mr. Brown responded appreciatively. Then all sang "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds" with Mrs. Edward B. Coy at the piano. There were several vocal selections, including a solo by William H. Brown. Rev. Joseph L. Peacock, a former pastor of the church, read a poem written for the anniversary by a friend of Mrs. Brown now in her 72nd year and Mrs. Brown was presented a large bouquet of golden ward roses. Refreshments were served and, as near as possible, the golden wedding of the golden occasion, the cake being of gold and white, with orange sherbet and even the ice cream was of a golden hue.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown felt disappointed when all members of the family could not be present to help celebrate the golden wedding, but the disappointment was dispelled when the Calvary Baptist church members visited the Brown home.

The case of the administrator of the estate of James A. Bogle against the Western Light and Power company, brought under the workmen's compensation act, was tried at the May session of the superior court for Washington county. The case was made at that time, but were to have been made before Judge Barrows in Providence court, therefor. The matter was delayed, however, until Friday afternoon, when arguments were made by Attorney Samuel H. Davis for the plaintiff and Attorney Charles R. Haslam of Providence for defendant, the insurance company. Mr. Bogle had been in the employ of the Western Light and Power company for several years and he fell from a trestle in the local plant and was injured. He was away from work for several weeks by reason of the injuries received and then returned to his employment. A month later he became ill again and was taken to the Rhode Island hospital, where he died October 16, 1914.

Counsel for defense claims death was due to cerebral meningitis, and not by reason of any injury while in the employ of the defendant company, and that he had the ailment of which he died prior to being injured. The counsel for plaintiff claimed that death was accelerated by the accident. The amount of damages sought is $1,000. There are no compensation commissioners in Rhode Island, therefore all cases under the workmen's compensation law are brought to the superior court. Judge Barrows reserved decision.

The funeral of William H. Taylor, who died of typhoid fever at New Haven, took place Saturday afternoon, soon after the arrival of the body, with services in The Shelter, at River Bend cemetery. Rev. Clement A. Burdick officiating. Narragansett lodge of Odd Fellows' ritual. The local lodge sent a floral tribute with the three links in red and white roses. Another handsome floral token was a broken shaft of pink carnations from shopmates at the Providence Arms company, New Haven. The bearers were Bert Loos, James C. Finley, J. Card, Archie McKee and Neil McKee.

Maria Kenyon, age five, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kenyon, of No. 16 Morgan street, was playing with a neighbor's dog through the dividing fence of her yard, Saturday, as she had often done before, when the dog in play muzzled at the little girl and nearly severed the tip of her nose. Dr. John L. May was called and closed the wound with two stitches. This wound will not probably result in permanent disfigurement.

That depression in the sidewalk at the corner of Broad and Main streets which the jury of the superior court for Washington county declared was a defect and awarded Mrs. Mary G. Knight damages of $1000 for alleged injuries received by falling at that point, has been covered over and now

PAPE'S DIAPESIN FOR INDIGESTION OR BAD STOMACH

BELIEVES SOURNESS, GAS, HEARTBURN, DYSPEPSIA IN FIVE MINUTES

Sour, gassy, upset stomach, indigestion, heartburn, dyspepsia; when the food you eat ferments into gases and stubborn humps; your head aches and you feel sick and miserable, that's when you realize the magic in Pape's Diapasin. It makes all stomach misery vanish in five minutes.

If your stomach is in a continuous revolt—if you can't get it to digest, please, for your sake, try Pape's Diapasin. It's so needless to have a bad stomach—make your next meal a favorite food meal, then take a little Diapasin. There will not be any distress—eat without fear. It's because Pape's Diapasin "really does" regulate weak, out-of-order stomachs that gives it its millions of sales annually. Get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapasin from any drug store. It is the quickest, surest stomach relief and cure known. It acts almost like magic—it is scientific, harmless and pleasant stomach preparation which truly the depression cannot be seen. The verdict was rendered on Friday afternoon and repairs were made Saturday morning. The verdict carried with it the costs, which will probably amount to $100.

Local Laconics.

Dr. John L. May is on a two weeks' vacation, accompanied by Mrs. May. Miss Susie Kenyon, of Uxbridge, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Frank K. Crandall, in Westerly.

The Pawcatuck Workmen's club is to apply for a liquor license. The fee for a club license is $100.

The police are not required to do special traffic duty in Dixon square nowadays and the duty will not be resumed until summer.

Class No. 14 of the First Baptist church, enjoyed an outing Saturday at the cottage of Mrs. Otis H. Chapman at Pleasant View.

According to a Providence newspaper "New London is agitating the appointment of a permanent fire department to supersede the present volunteer force."

Mrs. William Buchanan and Mrs. Frederick Dyer, who have been visiting in Mystic, motored through Westerly Friday, en route to Providence, where they reside.

Rear Admiral Herbert O. Dunn, of Westerly, is to be a member of the court martial in the case against Rear Admiral William N. Little, retired, charged with neglect of duty as inspector of submarine machines.

In the game between the first and second elevens of the Westerly High school, Friday afternoon, the first won by the score of 19 to 14. The regular team is scheduled for a game with the East Greenwich Academy team this afternoon at Westerly.

Rev. Clayton A. Burdick officiated at the funeral of John Davis Sanders, at his residence in Cross street, Sunday afternoon. The bearers were Robert C. Saunders, Frank E. Saunders, Albert Burdick, William Crandall, George Chipman and Charles Crandall.

Miss Edith Emily Burdick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Burdick, of Lower Pawcatuck, and Samuel Dewey Mordell of Bristol, were married on Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. W. F. Williams, rector of Christ Episcopal church. Miss Nellie Avery of New York city was bridesmaid and William Wordell of Boston, brother of groom was best man.

STONINGTON

Dr. Charles O. Main Has a Portion of His Left Leg Amputated—Was Suffering from Gangrene—Rock-Balancing Railroad—Cowan-Noyes Wedding.

Dr. Charles O. Main, a successful practitioner in Stonington for the past 43 years, underwent an operation in the Lawrence hospital, New London, Friday, a portion of his left leg being amputated by Dr. Daniel Sullivan. Dr. Main has been a sufferer from sugar diabetes for a long time, his foot became affected, gangrene set in, and he decided upon an operation. Dr. Main is 73 years of age and withstood the effects of the operation remarkably well and the chances are in favor of his recovery.

Railroad Improvement

With a large force of men at work, the rock-balancing of the tracks of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company between Stonington and Westerly is progressing rapidly and the sides of the roadbed are being nicely graded as the work progresses. When completed the six miles of roadbed will not only be increased in efficiency, but in appearance as well. While this improvement is costly in the end it is economical, in that it not only doubles the life of the tracks, but lessens the cost of use of the rails, but also is a comfort to the traveling public.

Cowan-Noyes Wedding.

Miss Mabel Lois Noyes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Noyes of West Broad street and Charles Herbert Cowan Jr. of Stonington, were married Sunday morning at the Parsonage-by-the-Sea, by Rev. Dwight C. Stone. After the ceremony a breakfast was served at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Cowan, in Water street. They left on an automobile trip through the Berkshires and Massachusetts.

Widening the Trackage.

During the past week work has been in progress on a big scale, with modern implements, in the removal of the big ledge alongside the westbound track of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, about midway between the Stonington station and Ledwaders Island roadway. This is in keeping with other railroad work done in this vicinity in connection with the Lord's Point bridge, the Groton Long Point bridge and others between Groton and Westerly, which shows that it is a paving of the way for a four-track system.

Stonington Pointers.

The Stonington firemen have accepted an invitation to spend the evening of Nov. 13, and some money with the Wakefield fire department, at the annual fair of the Rhode Island company.

Paul Bishop and Fred Schillhaas, who started for New York city on bicycles, arrived there Saturday afternoon. After a few days in the big city, they will return to the borough on their silent steeds and over the same route.

Mrs. Henry A. Muller is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Albert G. Randall, in New Rochelle, N. Y. Alexander P. Loper, who is superintending the installation of a fire alarm system in Westport, Conn., spent Sunday at his home in the borough. He will soon commence the installation of his latest system in the borough.

Quite a fleet of small craft have gone into winter quarters at Stonington. There is an applicant for every liquor license which the county commissioners will allow the borough, and the same conditions prevail in Pawcatuck and Mystic.

WOMEN CAN HARDLY BELIEVE

How Mrs. Hurley Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elton, Mo.—"I was troubled with displacement, inflammation and female weakness. For two years I could not stand on my feet long at a time and I could not walk two blocks without enduring cutting and drawing pains down my right side which increased every month. I have been at that time purple in the face and would walk the floor. I could not lie down or sit still sometimes for a day and night at a time. I was nervous, and had very little appetite; no ambition, melancholy, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world. After I had tried most every female remedy without success, my mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and gained in strength every day. I have now no trouble in any way and highly praise your medicine. It advertised itself."—Mrs. S. T. Hurley, Elton, Missouri.

Remember, the remedy which did this was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For sale everywhere.

It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacement, nervousness, inflammation, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means have failed. Why don't you try it? Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
